I have been licensed as a realtor in the Province of Nova Scotia for fifteen years. Prior to that time I worked as a para-legal in the real estate division of a law firm in British Columbia. My job is very interesting - I meet new people daily and I have succeeded in assisting many clients with their decisions to purchase, sell or rent properties. It is important to me that clients are satisfied with the services my office provides. The agents I hire are highly motivated and we work as a team to meet your needs. My involvement with the organized part of the real estate industry has allowed me to gain insight into issues that face the ever changing market. I have served as president of the local real estate board, a director of the provincial association, and presently serve as the education representative for this region.
